

Borvemor Cottages at Scarista, Isle of Harris

The Black House

The Black House or Tigh Dubh, which is five star quality accommodation, is fully modernised and was built in 1993 from traditional materials of stone, wood and thatch. With underfloor heating in the bathroom, a solid fuel stove in the lounge and a cosy boxbed off the livingroom, this cottage sleeps two in the main bedroom and is complete with hot tub in the garden.

"There can't be many more peaceful spots for a Hebridean holiday than Borvemor Blackhouse on the Isle of Harris" Scotsman 2007

Vallay House

The two storey Vallay House, which is four star quality accommodation, was recently built up from the walls of the late 18th century Borvemor House and is fully modernised with one double and 2 twin bedrooms. The lounge is next to a galley kitchen which leads into the dining room and on to a sunny patio. There is a bathroom upstairs and a double shower room downstairs. A sauna room with shower is also available.

Stable & Byre Cottage

The Stable Cottage has three bedrooms (1 double & 2 bedrooms with bunks) and sleeps 6 with a large lounge/dining area, self-contained kitchen, two wc rooms, one with shower.

Byre Cottage sleeps 4/5 at the other end of the converted steading. It has one double room and a second bedroom with a set of bunks and single bed next to a large shower room with WC. A sun porch leads on to the cosy lounge/dining and kitchen area.
